SAINT MARGARET'S COLLEGE

Hilltop 1995

In Loving Memory Of Joanne Rathgeb

Elegy in the Third Week of November

Snow driving in from the Adirondacks from over the lake, through full sunlight, first snow of this summery fall still abloom with cosmos, geraniums, calendula — though the maples never were fooled, and clattered bonily night on night from the south winds that should have smelled like snow. The snow held off, though earlier by far the butternut saw it coming and gave up, and started dropping slippery, unsweepable leaves all over the driveway and deck — this in the middle of September when it still wasn't clear the weathers would turn on us, though of course
we ought to have known, and we did know, the whole time Joanne encountering the last turbulence of descent into the deathful joy, death in a false season—meanwhile the late flowering that astonished us to hope.

Be Easy on Yourself

Our days can sometimes be very confusing.

We seem to have too many things to do,
too many problems to solve,
and not enough time to accomplish everything.

We tend to forget that each day
is a beautiful miracle, and there is much love and enjoyment to be experienced.

You don't have to solve every problem or accomplish all your goals in one day.

Finish what you can today,
and leave the rest for tomorrow.

Allow yourself time to relax, time to be with your friends and loved ones,
time to play,
and time to sit in the sunshine.

Be easy on yourself,
and you will find your problems are easier to solve and that you can accomplish more with your time.

And you will also find that your life is more peaceful,
your days are more fun,
and that you are happier
and more content.

To Those I Love

“If I should ever leave you whom I love, to go along the silent way, grieve not, nor speak to me with tears, but laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you there. (I’d come—I’d come, could I but find a way! But would not tears and grief be barriers)

And when you hear a song or see a bird I loved, please do not let the thought of me be sad—For I am loving you just as I always have—You were so good to me!

There are so many things I still wanted to do, so many things to say to you . . . Remember that I did not fear . . . It was just leaving you that was so hard to face . . . I loved you so.”

Mel,

May the road rise to meet you May the wind be always at your back
The sun shine warm upon your face
The rains fall soft upon your fields And may God hold you in the palm of his hand.

We love you!
Your proud family,
Mom, Dad, Tim & Jen

Do you remember who gave you your first break?

Someone saw something in you once That's partly why you are where you are today.

It could have been a thoughtful parent,
a perspective teacher,
a demanding drill sergeant,
an appreciative employer,
or just a friend who dug down in their pocket and came up with a few bucks.

Whoever it was had the kindness and the foresight to bet on your future.
Those are two beautiful qualities that separate the human being from the orangutan.

In the next 24 hours, take 10 minutes to write a grateful note to the person who helped you.

You'll keep a wonderful friendship alive.

Matter a fact, take another 10 minutes to give somebody else a break. Who knows?

Someday you might get a nice letter.

It could be one of the most gratifying messages you ever read.

The Prayer of Saint Patrick

I arise today through

*God's strength to pilot me, God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to see before me,
God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me, God's host to secure me-against snare of devils, against temptations and vices,
against inclinations of nature, against everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and near,
alone and in a crowd...*

Christ, be with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me.

Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me,

Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ where I lie,

Christ where I sit, Christ where I arise,

Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me.

Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks to me.

Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me.

Salvation is of the Lord.

Salvation is of the Lord.

Salvation is of the Christ.

May your salvation, O Lord, be ever with us.

Congratulations Jimmy Howrigan - SMC '95!
